7.29.1. Title. This chapter shall be known as the “Sex Offender Registration Ordinance.” (Res. 2011-079, passed Jul. 11, 2011)

7.29.2. Purpose. The intent of this chapter is to implement the federal Sex Offender Registration and Notification Act (SORNA) (Title I of Public Law 109-248) (42 USC 16901 et seq.) and shall be interpreted liberally to comply with the terms and conditions of SORNA as presently written or hereafter amended. (Res. 2011-079, passed Jul. 11, 2011)

7.29.3. Need. Violent crime in Indian Country is more than twice the national average. On some reservations it is twenty times the national average. An astounding thirty percent (30%) of Indian and Alaska Native women will be raped in their lifetimes. Tribal nations are disproportionately affected by violent crime and sex offenses in particular from both Indian and non-Indian perpetrators; consequently, the conduct and presence of convicted sex offenders in Indian Country threatens the political integrity, economic security, health, and welfare of tribal nations even to the point of imperiling the subsistence of tribal communities. (Res. 2011-079, passed Jul. 11, 2011)

7.29.4. Creation of Registries. (a) Sex Offender Registry. There is hereby established a sex offender registry program, the Suquamish Tribe Sex Offender Registry, which the Suquamish Probation Department shall maintain and operate pursuant to the provisions of this chapter.

(b) Public Sex Offender Registry Website. There is hereby established a public sex offender registry website, the Suquamish Tribe Public Sex Offender Registry Website, which the Suquamish Probation Department shall maintain and operate pursuant to the provisions of this chapter. (Res. 2011-079, passed Jul. 11, 2011)
