~~(b) No evidence concerning the sexual activities of the victim is admissible in prosecutions under this section except evidence of the victim's past sexual activities with the offender or evidence of specific instances of the victim's sexual activity to show the origin of semen, pregnancy, or disease which is at issue in the prosecution.~~

~~(c) If the defendant proposes for any purpose to offer evidence described in subsection (b) of this section, the Court will order a hearing out of the presence of the jury to determine whether the proposed evidence is admissible under subsection (b) of this section.~~

(da) Evidence of failure to make a timely complaint or immediate outcry does not raise any presumption as to the credibility of the victim.

(eb) Resistance by the victim is not required to show lack of consent. Force, fear, or threat is sufficient alone to show lack of consent.

(fc) In a prosecution under sections 7.17.110, 7.17.124, and 7.17.132 of this chapter, it is not a defense that the defendant did not know the age of the child depicted in the visual or printed matter. Further, in a prosecution under sections 7.17.11, 7.17.12, and 7.17.13 where the charged offense involves a fabricated depiction, the Tribe is not required to establish that the minor depicted actually exists. It is not a defense that the defendant lacked knowledge of whether the fabricated depiction had been created or altered by digitization, or that the defendant lacked knowledge of whether the minor depicted actually exists. For the purposes of this subsection, "fabricated depiction" has the same meaning as defined in STC §7.17.2(e). It is a defense, which the defendant must prove by a preponderance of the evidence, that at the time of the offense the defendant was not in possession of any facts on the basis of which he or she should reasonably have known that the person depicted was a minor.

(gd) In a prosecution under sections 7.17.110, 7.17.124, and 7.17.132 of this chapter, the prosecuting authority is not required to establish the identity of the alleged victim.

(he) The provisions of this chapter apply regardless of the sex, gender, or gender identity of the parties involved.

(if) If a person is convicted of a violation of this chapter, the Court may order the destruction of any photograph, motion picture film, digital image, videotape, or any other recording of an image that was made by the person in violation of this chapter.

(g) In prosecutions under this chapter, marital or relationship status is not a defense to any offense. (Res. 2020-155, passed Oct. 13, 2020; amended by Res.)
